Attending Next Generation Wine Companies:

You're Invited! (go to www.winetwo.com for more information)

Wine 2.0 is an informal wine industry networking event featuring the newest generation of emerging companies who are changing the world of wine. Participating companies are using technology to change the way wine is marketed, sold or made and will have the ability to meet with media and investment professionals to explain their market focus. Attendance is limited to 150 people. Invited guests include top wine and technology media, venture capitalists and select innovators of the wine industry.

If you're attending Web 2.0 at The Palace Hotel and feel you should be at Wine 2.0, please email us and we'll try to accommodate you. Wine 2.0 is just a couple blocks away from The Palace so you can easily walk between the two venues. To pre-register please email Donovan at wine2.0@radcru.com or logon to www.winetwo.com for more information.

When: November 8th
